

Starting Kindergarten: What I Wish I Knew Then€

Description

The Willows School

- It takes time for your kid (and you) to make friends at a new school
- Cliques look better from the outside. This goes for kid and parent cliques
- â€œCompetimommyâ€• thrives at private school
- If your child is having a rough start, donâ€™t be too hard on yourself or leap to conclusions about the school
- Donâ€™t be afraid to talk to the teacher or administrators if you sense something isnâ€™t quite right.
- If things are going really well, be prepared for some ups and downs, which are inevitable
- Donâ€™t try to take on too much volunteer work the first year

- Ignored, rejected playdate requests happen to almost everyone; its not personal!
- Perspective, perspective, perspective!

Want all the latest news, events and articles? â€œLikeâ€• Beyond The Brochure on Facebook!

Category

1. Beyond The Brochure

Tags

1. Competimommy
2. Competitive Moms
3. first days of school
4. Mom 101
5. Starting Kindergarten
6. things to know about kindergarten

Date Created

September 11, 2012

Author

admin