

Private Elementary School BUZZ

Description

Alice Fleming, Campbell Hall's™ long-serving director of admissions, will be leaving her job at the end of this admissions cycle.

Mr. Andrew, the head of Fountain Day School, has a kid at Laurence School so its not surprising that the West Hollywood preschool is a big feeder to very-popular Laurence School.

At my kids's™ school, Viewpoint, our very well-respected headmaster, Dr. Robert J. Dworkoski, has stepped down after three decades as head of school. A national search for his replacement is underway. Luckily, Dr. Dworkoski will continue on in a new role as President of the Viewpoint Educational Foundation. We wish him success in his new position!

Becky Riley Fisher is no longer the Mirman School's™ admissions director. The acting director of admissions is Jocelyn Balaban-Lutzky.

Congratulations to Beyond The Brochure's™ good friend, Jen Foley Tolbert, who will start as the new head of St. Mark's™ in Altadena in 2015. She is currently finishing her tenure as director of the Middle School at Polytechnic. Jen will make an excellent head of school!

If you have a legendary last name or youâ€™re a celebrity, feel free to use the school roster at some schools (not Viewpoint) for solicitations for your personal charity or your friendâ€™s jewelry line. If you donâ€™t have a famous last name, donâ€™t even try it.

At Willows School, apparently TWO members of the board are applying out for 7th grade this year (rather than stay through 8th grade). Is the Willows middle school not good enough for their kids? Given the schoolâ€™s rather desperate attempts to keep families in the middle school, this highly unusual move smacks of a double standard. Board members, donâ€™t seem to have to follow the rules that apply to other families.
