A review of Beyond The Brochure by Elaine Sir on her lovely lifestyle blog:

“If you’re on the LA private school admissions circuit right now, say AYE!

I was lucky enough to attend and graduate from The Buckley School “ where the teachers held Stanford degrees and PhDs. The education and the lifelong friendships from such an intimate and private community were invaluable “ and I hope to gift my own kids with the same luxury. I have to say though, I’m not sure that I would be admitted if I was to apply today. These LA schools’ admissions process is a [bleepin’] racket these days.

The Center for Early Education, for example, had 178 applicants one year with only 16 spots available. That’s a whole lot of rejections mailed out on Black Friday.”
