

Raising Mixed Race Kids: Where Did He Get Those Blue Eyes?

Description

Where Did He Get Those Blue Eyes?

Here's one of my most personal guest posts about raising mixed race kids. It's on a wonderful website called The Mother Company.

The Mother Company produces "Ruby's Studio" a series of gentle, fun, and beautiful DVDs for preschool children ages 3-6. All of their shows focus on a single theme based in social and emotional learning "with the goal of helping parents teach these important lessons in a smart, stylish, meaningful way.
