

Lisa Marfisi: From L.A. Admissions Director To Educational Consultant

Description

This morning, I had a lovely coffee meeting with Lisa Marfisi in West Hollywood. I first met Lisa when she was the admissions director at Echo Horizon School. We hit it off right away and it turns out we have several “small world” connections. Lisa just started working as an educational consultant, helping families find the right elementary or secondary school in Los Angeles. With her years of experience at some of L.A.’s top schools, her knowledge will be an asset to any family looking for the right school. Lisa was the person who made the decisions about who got in! For more information, visit Academic Achievers. Congratulations, Lisa!

Testimonials:

Lisa did an outstanding job of evaluating my son and helping us find a school to perfectly fit his needs. She worked her magic with the appropriate people at both private schools we applied to and my son was accepted to both programs during the summer before 5th grade which was amazing. I am very appreciative of Lisa's help and will definitely be coming back when it's time to apply for middle school.
