

A Really Good Article About Financial Aid in the NYT

Description

This is absolutely one of the best articles I've read about how the "sausage-making" process of funding families for financial aid works. Private school administrators, including one from Harvard-Westlake, tell it like it is in this article. Did you know you can't belong to a country club or have a second home or a boat and expect to get financial aid? Shocking! Also, what's a big mistake that parents make? Read on!
