

LA Private School Events & "Beyond The Brochure" Facebook Pics

Description

default watermark

Come hear the perspectives and advice from two long-time independent school educators who have guided families through the secondary school admissions process. Keith and Peter will enlighten you on definitive steps families can take to avoid the high anxiety, including a behind the scenes analysis of the stress and anxiety involved in the private secondary school admissions process. The discussion will pertain specifically to the middle and upper school application process and address admissions stressors such as:

- The ISEE exam
- The Interview
- Rumors, Gossip, Myths and Legends
- Outcomes

November 29, 2011
7:30 – 9:00 p.m.

William Morris Endeavor (Screening Room)
9601 Wilshire Blvd., Beverly Hills
Parking entrance on Camden, validation provided

RESERVE ASAP! – SPACE IS VERY LIMITED

$75 per person

To reserve a spot, register online at:

<http://dtsla.kintera.org/NovemberLecture>

Keith Sarkisian is the Director of Admissions at Brentwood School Middle and Upper Divisions, where he has worked for the past 18 years. His paper entitled An Analysis of Stress and Anxiety in the Brentwood School Application Process was completed in June 2011 as part of a Masters Degree research project/thesis. He has interviewed over 2000 families for Brentwood School admissions.

Peter Smailes was born and educated in South Africa, and serves as Headmaster of Curtis School. During his sixteen year tenure at Curtis he has held many titles including English teacher, Dean of Upper School, Head of Middle School, and Outplacement Advisor.

<http://bit.ly/tjXQYF>

Category

1. Beyond The Brochure
2. Photos

Date Created

November 4, 2011

Author

admin

default watermark