

Private Elementary School Buzz

Description

Overheard at a private jewelry trunk show Porcha and I attended to benefit Project Knapsack, Porcha's nonprofit which provides school supplies to African children, LA socialites raving about Wildwood School and Windward School.

The Pilgrim School is creating a buzz within private school circles. It hired an impressive new head of school within the past few years. Sierra Canyon School in Chatsworth is also attracting positive attention from private school insiders and entertainment industry parents for its all academic and all-around excellence.

Curtis School accepted only two non-sibling families for DK for fall 2010.

The Willows Community School recently invited all parents to a meeting with architects to learn more about the school's master planning process for long-term campus enhancements.
