Progressive School Los Angeles: A New Private Elementary School

Description

PROGRESSIVE SCHOOL: LOS ANGELES

Heather Morrison Poland is a mom at Branches Atelier Preschool in Culver City. I met Heather when I spoke at Branches in 2013. So, I was excited when she told me she and a group of parents/educators are opening a new Reggio-inspired private elementary school on the Westside of L.A (location TBD).

Progressive School L.A. is accepting applications for kindergarten for 2015/2016.

For more information, visit, www.progressiveschoolla.org (see the video of Heather and the founding parents and educators on the homepage)
