Anne, Porcha and I are extremely excited to release the Second Edition of Beyond The Brochure. Since the summer, we have been working on what can truly be called a labor of love: the second edition. When we began the book and the blog in Sept. 2009, we had no idea where it would take us. It has been one of the most wonderful and rewarding parts of our professional lives. We’ve read every email you’ve sent us, we read all your blog comments and we answer your questions whenever possible. As always, our goal is to help parents better understand the competitive private elementary school admissions process in Los Angeles.

THANK YOU, thank you, thank you, to each and every one of you for your support for our book, for reading our blog and for continuing to encourage our work with your kind words. Weâ€™ve enjoyed meeting many of you at preschool speaking events, as we talk about kindergarten admissions. To those of you who have become personal friends as a result of this book and blog, we are lucky to have met you.

The Second Edition of Beyond The Brochure is available now on Amazon and is also at Itâ€™s A Childrenâ€™s World and Chevalierâ€™s on Larchmont. Look for it in Barnes & Noble in about 6-8 weeks.

All our best,

Christina, Anne and Porcha
