Private School Auctions At Progressive And Traditional Schools: What Would YOU Bid On?

Description

Auctions and galas are a big deal at private schools. The items up for bid tend to fall into similar categories: vacation getaways, tickets for sporting or entertainment, fun stuff for kids and more. But, within those categories progressive schools offer some very different items than those at traditional schools. Take a lookâ€¦and glimpse inside the schoolâ€™s culture as highlighted at school auctions.

Here are 3 auction items from Sequoyah School in Pasadena, a progressive school with parents whoâ€™d love the hippest items in town!
