

Fast Forward: Harvard-Westlake School's Annual Report

Description

My family received the Harvard-Westlake School's 2009-10 Annual Report. We don't have any connection to the school. We got it because we contributed to a memorial fund for our friends, Scott and Jody Siegler's amazing daughter, Julia Siegler, who was tragically struck by a car and killed while trying to catch the bus this past February. The cover photo, above, shows Harvard-Westlake students joining hands in honor of Julia and another student who died.

Here are a few highlights from the Annual Report:

- Heritage Circle- $50,000 and up. Number of donors: 49
- Community Circle- Under $1,500. Number of donors: 596

Here are some of the college matriculations for Harvard-Westlake Class of 2010:

- Arizona State (1)
- Carleton College (1)
- Chapman University (1)
- Columbia University (11)
- Duke University (3)
- Earlham College (2)
- Harvard University (7)
- Indiana University (1)
- Kenyon College (1)
- NYU (12)
- Northeastern (1)
- Northwestern (4)
- Pepperdine (1)
- Princeton (5)
- Stanford (9)

- UC Berkeley (1)
- UCLA (6)
- Yale (8)

Percent of students receiving financial aid: 17%

Not mentioned in the Annual Report, but possibly of interest. Thomas Hudnut, former President of Harvard-Westlake is married to Dee Dee Hudnut, Admissions Director at the Center For Early Education. As many of you may know, The Center is known as a “feeder” school to Harvard-Westlake.
