

8 Steps To Getting Your Kid Into Private Elementary School on mom.me

Description

Applying to private elementary school is like trying to set up an arranged marriage, one Los Angeles preschool director told me.

Sheâ€™s so right.

The entire process is an awkward series of applications, interviews and events, all attempts to find out if youâ€™re the right match for each other. But to even get to that point, youâ€™ll need to know what steps in the admissions process are required. Only after that will you know whether you have found a perfect match.

As a mom of two kids, 11 and 14, Iâ€™ve been through the kindergarten and middle school admissions process twice for each kid. Here are the eight steps you need to take when applying to private elementary schools:
