

“Navigating L.A. Private Secondary School Admissions” with Sandy Eiges of L.A. School Scout-1/19/17

Description

School Admissions Consultant, helping you navigate the bewildering world of schools in Los Angeles

To reserve your spot, CLICK HERE.

Navigating L.A. Private Secondary School Admissions

With school expert, Sandy Eiges, LA School Scout™

If you have children entering grades 6-11, in this workshop Sandy Eiges, founder of L.A. School Scout answers your questions on the process of applying to L.A. private secondary schools:

Topics

1. Identifying which schools to tour
 2. What to expect on a tour or at an Open House
 3. The different parts of the application: parent essays, student essays, payment, photo, school recommendations, school transcript, teacher recommendations
 4. Additional References and Recommendations
 5. Attending additional school events
 6. Parent and/or Student Interview
 7. The different types of student assessments – ISEE, SSAT, HSPT
 8. The importance of extra-curricular activities
- And more...

When: Thursday, January 19, 2017 4:00-5:30pm

Where: Santa Monica

Cost: $25/person, $35/couple

Please reserve your spot now – seating is limited (sorry, no refunds). The address and direction with your receipt.

To reserve your spot, CLICK HERE.

Category

1. Beyond The Brochure
2. Events

Tags

1. Applying for Middle and High School
2. L.A. School Scout
3. Los Angeles private secondary school applications
4. sandy eiges
5. Secondary School Admissions

Date Created

January 4, 2017

Author

admin

default watermark